

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

A. Local School Money.

law.

The selectmen in each town shall assess annually upon the polls and ratable estate taxable therein, a sum to be computed at the rate of seven hundred and fifty dollars for every dollar of the public taxes apportioned to such town, and so for a greater or less sum.

P. S. 88:1, as amended by 48, laws 1905.

[For the public tax apportioned to your town, see Laws of 1911, also blanks for annual report to department of public instruction. Multiply apportionment for your town by 750, and the result will be money required by law.]

high school
tuition, flags and other statutory requirements,— how raised.

The school board of each district in their annual report shall state in detail the sums of money which will be required during the ensuing fiscal year for the purchase of text-books, scholars' supplies, flags and appurtenances, and for the payment of the tuition of the scholars of the district in high schools and academies in accordance with chapter 96 of the Laws of 1901, and for the payment of all other statutory obligations of the district. The selectmen of the town, in their next annual assessment, shall assess upon the taxable polls and property of the district a sum sufficient to meet the obligations above enumerated and when collected shall pay the same over to the district treasurer.

P. S. 88:3.

[Occasional repairs are those involving a small outlay, not more than five percent of the total school money. For repairs which amount to remodeling, special appropriations should be made. For conveyance of pupils not more than 25 percent of all school moneys may be used.]

districts.

The selectmen shall assign to each district a proportion of such money, according to the valuation of the district for the year, or in such other manner as the town, at the annual meeting, shall direct, and shall pay over the same to the school board of the district.

P. S. 88:4.

[In most cases there is but one district in a town. The selectmen therefore will pay over the entire school assessment to the district treasurer to be paid out on the order of the school board.]

When a guardian and ward reside in the same town, the selectmen shall assign the tax assessed upon the ward's personal property to the school district in which the ward lives and has his home.

P. S. 89:26.

If a majority of each of said boards of selectmen report in favor of such transfer, they shall sign a certificate of that fact, describing such territory, and stating that it is annexed to such adjoining town, or district therein for school purposes, which certificate shall be recorded by the town clerk of each town. 72:3, laws 1893.

They may dismiss any teacher found by them to be immoral or incompetent or who shall not conform to regulations prescribed; provided, however, that no teacher shall be so dismissed before the expiration of the period for which said teacher was engaged without having previously been notified of the cause of such dismissal, and provided further that no teacher shall be so dismissed without having previously been granted a full and fair hearing.

P. S. 92:7, as amended by laws 1895.

[Text-books and supplies cannot legally be paid for out of school money. They are statutory requirements and the selectmen must assess enough, in addition to money required by law and otherwise voted by the district, to cover the requirements of the scholars. Whenever requested by the superintendent of public instruction, the State Board of Health shall cause to be made an inspection of any factory or other place in which children under the age of sixteen are employed, and may require the discharge of any child or children found employed therein who by reason of physical condition, of unsanitary conditions of employment, or of development below the normal development of children of that age, cannot in their judgment continue to be employed without undue risk to health.

No boy under ten and no girl under sixteen years of age shall sell or expose or offer for sale newspapers, magazines, periodicals or other merchandise in any street or public place. No child shall work as a bootblack in any street or public place unless he is over ten years of age.

No child under sixteen years of age shall be employed, or permitted or suffered to work, in, about, or in connection with, any place or establishment named in section 1, unless the person, firm, or corporation employing such child, procures and keeps on file, and accessible to any truant officer, or other authorized inspector, an employment certificate as hereinafter prescribed.

On the termination of the employment of a child whose employment certificate is on file, such certificate shall be kept by the employer and surrendered to any authorized inspector on demand.

An employment certificate shall be issued only by the superintendent of schools, or where there is no superintendent, by a person authorized by the school board, provided, however, that no person authorized as aforesaid shall have authority to issue such certificate for any child

(2) A passport or duly attested transcript of the certificate of birth or baptism or public record, showing the date and place of birth of such child.

(3) A certificate from a medical officer of the local board of health, or from a physician designated by the school board, certifying that the child has reached the normal development of a child of his age, and that he is in sufficiently sound health and physically able to perform the work which he intends to do.

No employment certificate shall be issued until the child in question has personally appeared before and been examined by the person issuing the certificate.

Every such employment certificate shall state the name, sex, and date and place of birth, of the child, shall describe the color of hair and eyes, the height and weight and any distinguishing facial marks of such child; that all papers required by the preceding sections have been duly examined, approved and filed; that the child named in the certificate has appeared before the person signing the same and been examined; and that such child has been found to be able to read understandingly and write legibly simple sentences in the English language. Every such certificate shall be signed, in the presence of the person issuing the same, by the child in whose name it is issued, and shall show the date of its issue.

The school record required by this act shall be signed by the principal or chief executive officer of the school which the child has attended, and shall be furnished on demand to a child entitled thereto.

Such record shall certify that the child has regularly attended the public schools, or private schools lawfully approved as such, for not less than three hundred half-days, as shown by the school register, during the year previous to his arriving at the age of fourteen, or during the year previous to applying for such school record, and that he is able to read understandingly and write legibly simple sentences in the English language. Such school record shall also give the date of birth and residence of the child as shown on the records of the school and the name of his parent, guardian or custodian.

The superintendent of schools or other person authorized to issue employment certificates shall keep a record of the same in a book. Such record shall contain a list of the names of all children to whom certifi-

The superintendent of public instruction shall appoint not exceeding three state inspectors, who shall be paid their necessary expenses and such compensation as the governor and council shall determine, not exceeding $1,200 per annum each, and who shall devote their whole time to their work.

The state inspectors, under the direction of the superintendent of public instruction, shall inspect all factories and other places of employment within the contemplation of this act and all records and methods of enforcement. They shall have the same power as to enforcement and the serving of warrants as the several truant officers.

The superintendent of public instruction, with the approval of the attorney-general, may employ counsel, and provide legal assistance, wherever the same may, in his opinion, be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this act, and the cost thereof shall be a charge upon the appropriation hereinafter provided.

The superintendent of public instruction shall frequently report to the chairman of the several school boards the relative efficiency of the several truant officers.

The governor with the advice and consent of the council may require school boards to appoint additional truant officers if in their judgment such additional officers are necessary.

Children apparently under sixteen.

An inspector or truant officer shall make demand upon any employer in or about whose place or establishment a child apparently under the age of sixteen years is employed, or permitted or suffered to work, and whose employment certificate is not filed as required by this act, that such employer shall either furnish him within ten days satisfactory evidence that such child is in fact over sixteen years of age, or shall cease to employ, or permit, or suffer such child to work, in such place or establishment. The inspector shall require from such employer the same evidence of age, of such child as is required in the issuance of an employment certificate, and the employer furnishing such evidence shall not be required to furnish any further evidence of the age of the child.

Penalties.

Whoever employs any child, and whoever, having under his control as parent, guardian or otherwise, any child, permits or suffers such child to be employed or to work in violation of any of the provisions of this act, shall be fined not less than five nor more than two hundred dollars, or be imprisoned for not less than ten nor more than thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Whoever continues to employ any child in violation of any of the provisions of this act, after being notified thereof by an inspector, or truant officer, shall for every day thereafter that such employment continues, be fined not less than five nor more than twenty dollars.

Any person authorized to sign any certificate or paper called for by this act, who certifies to any materially false statement therein, shall be fined not less than five nor more than two hundred dollars, or be imprisoned for not less than five nor more than thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Refusal by an employer to produce any employment certificate required by this act shall be prima facie evidence of the illegal employment of any child whose employment certificate is not produced.

Any superintendent of schools or other person issuing employment certificates, who fails to comply with the provisions of this act shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars.

The sum of six thousand five hundred dollars annually is appropriated for the purposes of this act.

Persons having custody of children must cause them to attend school.

Any person who does not comply with the requirements of this section shall be fined ten dollars for the first offense and twenty dollars for every subsequent offense, for the use of the district; “provided, however, that any person having the custody and control of a child may apply to the state superintendent of public instruction for relief whenever such person deems it to be against the moral or physical welfare of such child to attend the particular school required by law, and thereupon, after notice to the school board of the district in which such child is required to attend school, the state superintendent of public in-
